शुद्धता का विश्वास,

खास!

FOODOKO is not just a brand - it's a heartfelt legacy woven from humble beginnings, perseverance, and the authentic taste of India. Our story began in 1975, when Shrimati Ramidevi Laxmandas Savlani started making papads from her home under the Gruh Udyog scheme. What started in a kitchen has grown into one of India's most respected names in papads, spices, and culinary products.

At just 14, her eldest son Shri Govindram Laxmandas Savlani took the reins, armed with only a bicycle and a dream. With the support of his three younger brothers, he laid the foundation for Mahalaxmi Gruh Udyog, which later evolved into FOODOKO WORLD PRIVATE LIMITED — a name built on values, driven by quality, and inspired by tradition.

In 2000, the brand FOODOKO was officially launched under his leadership. His vision is now carried forward by his three sons:

- Mr. Akash Savlani joined in 2009, strengthening our roots in the Indian market.
- Mr. Rahul Savlani expanded the brand globally from 2018, taking Indian flavors overseas.
- Mr. Hemant Savlani leads our presence in government tenders, HORECA and modern trade sectors.

Today, FOODOKO proudly offers over 40 high-quality products, including Ground Spices, Blended Spices, and Papads, available in multiple pack sizes to suit diverse preferences. Our current production capacity is 30 metric tons per day, which will soon increase by an additional 50 metric tons with a new 135,000 sq. ft. facility near Ahmedabad.

We proudly serve customers across India, and have established a growing presence in USA, UAE, Qatar, the Philippines, Europe, and Africa.

Behind every pack lies a story - of a grandmother's dedication, a father's dream, and sons who've taken that legacy into the future.
